

RAWCLIFFE PARISH COUNCIL

PRIVACY NOTICE – COUNCILLORS AND COUNCIL EMPLOYEES

Your personal data – what is it?

“Personal data” is any information about a living individual which allows them to be identified from that data (for example a name, photographs, videos, email address, or address). Identification can be directly using the data itself or by combining it with other information which helps to identify a living individual (e.g. a list of staff may contain personnel ID numbers rather than names but if you use a separate list of the ID numbers which give the corresponding names to identify the staff in the first list then the first list will also be treated as personal data). The processing of personal data is governed by legislation relating to personal data which applies in the United Kingdom including the General Data Protection Regulation (the “GDPR”) and other legislation relating to personal data and rights such as the Human Rights Act.

Who are we?

This Privacy Notice is provided to you by Rawcliffe Parish Council which is the data controller for your data.

Other data controllers that Rawcliffe Parish Council works with:

- National Association of Local Councils (Known as NALC)
- Society of Local Council Clerks (SLCC)
- ERNLLCA (East Riding and North Lincolnshire Local Council Association)
- Legal and professional advisors
- Principal Authorities
- Rawcliffe & Rawcliffe Bridge Schools
- Funeral Directors
- Stonemasons

We may need to share your personal data we hold with them in order to provide services. If we and the other data controllers listed above are processing your data jointly for the same purposes, then Rawcliffe Parish Council and the other data controllers may be “joint data controllers” which mean we are all collectively responsible to you for your data. Where each of the parties listed above are processing your data for their own independent purposes then each of us will be independently responsible to you and if you have any questions, wish to exercise any of your rights (see below) or wish to raise a complaint, you should do so directly to the relevant data controller.

A description of what personal data Rawcliffe Parish Council processes and for what purposes is set out in this Privacy Notice.

Rawcliffe Parish Council will process some or all of the following personal data where necessary to perform its tasks:

- Names, titles, and aliases, photographs;
- Contact details such as telephone numbers, addresses, and email addresses;
- Where they are relevant to the services provided by Rawcliffe Parish Council, or where you provide them to us, we may process information such as gender, education/work history, academic/professional qualifications;
- Financial identifiers such as bank account numbers and sort codes;

How we use sensitive personal data

- We may process sensitive personal data including, as appropriate:
 - in order to comply with legal requirements and obligations to third parties.
- “Special categories of data” and require higher levels of protection. We need to have further justification for collecting, storing and using this type of personal data.
- We may process special categories of personal data in the following circumstances:
 - In limited circumstances, with your explicit written consent.
 - Where we need to carry out our legal obligations.
- Less commonly, we may process this type of personal data where it is needed in relation to legal claims or where it is needed to protect your interests (or someone else’s interests) and you are not capable of giving your consent, or where you have already made the information public.

Do we need your consent to process your sensitive personal data?

- In limited circumstances, we may approach you for your written consent to allow us to process certain sensitive personal data. If we do so, we will provide you with full details of the personal data that we would like and the reason we need it, so that you can carefully consider whether you wish to consent.

Rawcliffe Parish Council will comply with data protection law which states that the personal data we hold about you must be:

- Used lawfully, fairly and in a transparent way;
- Collected only for valid purposes that we have clearly explained to you and not used in any way that is incompatible with those purposes;
- Relevant to the purposes we have told you about and limited only to those purposes;
- Accurate and kept up to date;
- Kept only as long as necessary for the purposes we have told you about;
- Kept and destroyed securely including ensuring that appropriate technical and security measures are in place to protect your personal data to protect personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure.

We use your personal data for some or all of the following purposes:

- To understand your needs to provide the services that you request and to understand what we can do for you.
- To confirm your identity to provide some services;
- To contact you by post, email, telephone or using social media.
- To help us to build up a picture of how we are performing;
- To promote the interests of Rawcliffe Parish Council
- To maintain our own accounts and records;
- To seek your views, opinions or comments;
- To notify you of changes to our facilities, services, events, staff and other role holders;
- To send you communications about the work of Rawcliffe Parish Council
- To process relevant financial transactions including payments for services supplied by Rawcliffe Parish Council.
- To allow the statistical analysis of data so we can plan the provision of services.

What is the legal basis for processing your personal data?

Rawcliffe Parish Council is a Civil Parish with obligations to its electorate. Most of your personal data is processed for compliance with a constitutional obligation. Sometimes when exercising these duties it is necessary to process personal data of councillors, council office holders and council staff. We will always take into account your interests and rights. This Privacy Notice sets out your rights and Rawcliffe Parish Council’s obligations to you.

We may process personal data if it is necessary for the performance of services within the community.

Sometimes the use of your personal data requires your consent. We will first obtain your consent to that use.

Sharing your personal data

This section provides information about the third parties with whom Rawcliffe Parish Council may share your personal data. These third parties have an obligation to put in place appropriate security measures and will be responsible to you directly for the manner in which they process and protect your personal data. It is likely that we will need to share your data with some or all of the following (but only where necessary):

- The data controllers listed above under the heading “Other data controllers Rawcliffe Parish Council works with”.

How long do we keep your personal data?

We will keep some records permanently if we are legally required to do so. We may keep some other records for an extended period of time. Rawcliffe Parish Council is permitted to retain data in order to defend or pursue claims. In some cases the law imposes a time limit for such claims (for example 3 years for personal injury claims or 6 years for contract claims). We will retain some personal data for this purpose as long as we believe it is necessary to be able to defend or pursue a claim. In general, we will endeavour to keep data only for as long as we need it. This means that we will delete it when it is no longer needed.

Your rights and your personal data

You have the following rights with respect to your personal data:

When exercising any of the rights listed below, in order to process your request, we may need to verify your identity for your security. In such cases we will need you to respond with proof of your identity before you can exercise these rights.

1 The right to access personal data we hold on you

- At any point you can contact us to request the personal data we hold on you as well as why we have that personal data, who has access to the personal data and where we obtained the personal data from. Once we have received your request we will respond within one month.
- There are no fees or charges for the first request but additional requests for the same personal data or requests which are manifestly unfounded or excessive may be subject to an administrative fee.

2 The right to correct and update the personal data we hold on you

- If the data we hold on you is out of date, incomplete or incorrect, you can inform us and your data will be updated.

a. The right to have your personal data erased

- If you feel that we should no longer be using your personal data or that we are unlawfully using your personal data, you can request that we erase the personal data we hold.
- When we receive your request we will confirm whether the personal data has been deleted or the reason why it cannot be deleted (for example because we need it for to comply with a legal obligation).

b. The right to object to processing of your personal data or to restrict it to certain purposes only

- You have the right to request that we stop processing your personal data or ask us to restrict processing. Upon receiving the request we will contact you and let you know if we are able to comply or if we have a constitutional obligation to continue to process your data.

- c. *The right to data portability
 - You have the right to request that we transfer some of your data to another controller. We will comply with your request, where it is feasible to do so, within one month of receiving your request.

- d. *The right to withdraw your consent to the processing at any time for any processing of data to which consent was obtained
 - You can withdraw your consent easily by telephone, email, or by post (see Contact Details below).

- e. *The right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office.
 - You can contact the Information Commissioners Office on 0303 123 1113 or via email <https://ico.org.uk/global/contact-us/email/> or at the Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire SK9 5AF.

Transfer of Data Abroad

Our website is also accessible from overseas so on occasion some personal data (for example in a newsletter) may be accessed from overseas.

Further processing

If we wish to use your personal data for a new purpose, not covered by this Privacy Notice, then we will provide you with a new notice explaining this new use prior to commencing the processing and setting out the relevant purposes and processing conditions. Where and whenever necessary, we will seek your prior consent to the new processing.

Changes to this notice

We keep this Privacy Notice under regular review and we will place any updates on www.rawcliffeparishcouncil.org.uk This Notice was last updated in May 2018.
